All of us at the gallery wish you a very happy Fourth of July, and thank you for your continued interest and support.

We invite you to stop by the gallery during Dirty Linen Night, August 10th 2019...

...and hear the Steve Pistorius Quartet as they fill the courtyard with lively jazz. Bandleader Steve at the keys will be joined by Wendell Brunius on trumpet, Tom Fischer on clarinet and sax, and Benny Amón on drums. Dirty Linen Night caterers will set up food and drink.

Step into the beautifully arrayed gallery rooms to peruse the art, the signature pen & ink creations of our resident artist Emilie Rhys, who will be stationed in the courtyard at her drafting table creating a large-format drawing during the live music performance. Enjoy the colorful new plantings in the courtyard. Courtney & Esther will be on hand to assist you with questions about the art.

DATE IS Saturday August 10th

TIME IS 6:00pm-9:00pm

Our location is 708 Toulouse, Courtyard

Please note: Tickets are required only for food and drink, no ticket necessary to listen to the music and to view the art in the gallery.

So what is "DIRTY LINEN NIGHT"?

It is an art crawl that takes place in the French Quarter, along Royal Street (plus side streets like Toulouse), Jackson Square and Dutch Alley.

It is the irreverent cousin to White Linen Night, and is held a week later. It has been held for 18 years in contrast to White Linen Night's 25 years.

Like White Linen Night, Dirty Linen Night features local art, music and plenty of food and beverages (the latter two requiring purchase).

In true tongue-in-cheek style, Dirty Linen Night shoppers are asked to wear the dirty clothes that they originally wore to White Linen Night. That's not a requirement, of course, but it is highly encouraged!
