

How great is that? We're celebrating our third anniversary with two live Music + Art events!!

Tuba Skinny + Leroy Jones Quintet will provide our entertainment November 8-9. Join us to enjoy drinks and light fare as you view the art in the gallery while wonderful music from the courtyard fills the air.

Tuba Skinny performing during a previous anniversary event. Join us this year to hear them on Friday November 8th, 7:00pm-9:00pm.

Photo credit Kevin Zansler

Leroy Jones Quintet performing during the gallery's 1st anniversary in 2017. Video by Sofia Ricci.

Join us to hear the Leroy Jones Quintet on Saturday November 9th, 6:00pm-9:00pm. *Note: due to an unexpected trip overseas, Leroy and Katja will not be performing this night. The band lineup will be: Wendell Brunius, Trumpet & Vocals; Christian Winther, Clarinet & Sax; Detroit Brooks, Guitar; Jason Stewart, Bass; and Barnaby Gold, Drums.

Emilie will be stationed at her drafting table creating a 24"x36" drawing of the band on both nights. Here she is during Dirty Linen Night 2019, drawing the Steve Pistorius Quartet. Photo credit Sophie Germer

PERMANENT EXPANDED HOURS: Over at the gallery on Toulouse, come and see us anytime 10:00 am to 6:00 pm, Thursdays through Mondays, or if necessary, by appointment other times.

Photo by Sophie Germer, June 22nd 2019.

Scene By Rhys Fine Art is a proud sponsor of local NPR station WWNO -- an important community resource. Listen in the weeks of October 28th thru November 9th to hear our spots promoting the gallery's anniversary events.

WWW.SCENEBYRHYS.COM

Don't forget to check out our website using your smartphone, tablet, laptop or desktop! Many new pen & ink drawings have been uploaded recently, including book 100...

Yes, that's right, Emilie has completed One Hundred Sketchbooks, and is well on the way to completing Books 101 and 102. All the while continuing the work on oil paintings for the upcoming exhibit: New Orleans Music Observed: The Art of Noel Rockmore and Emilie Rhys opening at the New Orleans Jazz Museum on Thursday January 30th, 2020. More news on that to follow.

