Scene By Rhys Fine Art:
iconic location, art by Emilie Rhys. Originals on paper, canvas, wood and copper. Open most days 11:00am to 4:00pm, or by appointment other times.

New at the gallery this year: examples of the artist's work from the 1990s to the 2000s, various sizes and mediums, now on display and for sale—some created in NYC, most in Santa Fe, NM: portraits of 19th C. Native Americans and other historic subjects, florals and still-lives, flamenco dancers and guitarists, landscape views, and sports (mostly football).

As always, Rhys' New Orleans music portraits (since 2011) in pencil & ink on paper, or oil on canvas or copper, are up on the walls. Works on paper (9" x 12", 11" x 14", 14" x 17", or 18" x 24") are also available unframed, packaged in ClearBags. Here are four :

Charlie Gabriel, Naydja CoJoe, Evan Christopher, Ashlin Parker.

And, a very special painting on view at the gallery:

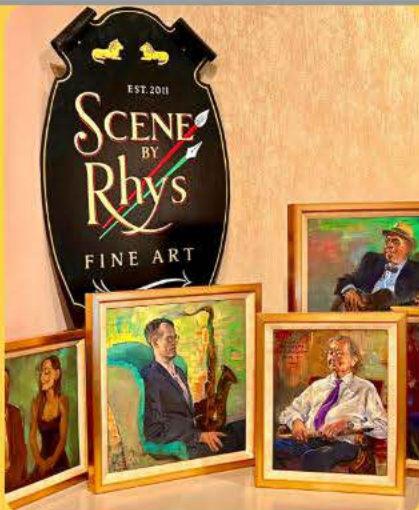

"Mahmoud Chouki" by Emilie Rhys. 2024, oil on copper, 12" x 12" (frame 17.5" x 17.5"). Cover art for his new album "Caravan: From Marrakech to New Orleans," available on digital platforms (iTunes, Spotify, etc). Soon to be released on 12" vinyl--info to follow.
